

Lawrence Whitney

Lawrence Whitney possesses 16 years extensive experience as a Major Governmental Contractor Access and Visual Basic programmer with seven years of programming experience and a proven track record in delivering software solutions to Governmental Contractor business problems using best practice methodologies. His major expertise areas are: Project Tracking Systems, Creating web based ESS Customer Service Sites, Space Utilization Systems, Real Time Codes Tracking Systems, Help Desk Support including providing first line system/network administration technical support desktop configuration, e-mail problems and application related issues in a client-server environment. Development and maintenance of Corporate Real Estate Event Management System applications. Financial Reporting Systems that take the financial data from DDA downloads and create standard reporting for senior management reports. He is expert in the following disciplines: Operating Systems: Win 95,98,200,XP Languages: Visual Basic 6.0, Microsoft Visual Basic for Applications, ASP.Net Databases: SQL Server 7.0, SQ, SQL Server 2000, MS Access. He earned a B.S. in Information Systems, from San Diego State University.